Articulation Lab

Read four ways to shape a phrase

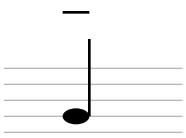

Name: _____ Date: _____

Study the four examples. Write the mark's name in each answer space.

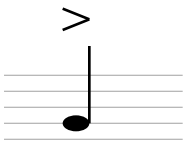

Staccato = short and detached. Accent = emphasize the beginning of the note.
Tenuto = sustained length or weight, as the musical context requires.
Slur = connect the different notes smoothly. Articulation is not a fixed change of note value.

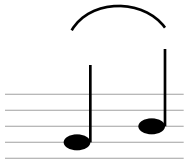

Staccato

Tenuto

Accent

Slur

1. Which mark is shown by a dot above a note?

Staccato

2. Which mark is shown by a short horizontal line?

Tenuto

3. Which mark uses the symbol >?

Accent

4. Which mark uses a curved line over different notes?

Slur

5. A phrase needs short, detached notes. Which mark fits?

Staccato

6. Emphasize the beginning of one note. Which mark fits?

Accent

7. Connect a group of different notes smoothly. Which mark fits?

Slur

8. Give a note sustained length or weight, as context requires. Which mark fits?

Tenuto

Teacher note: A slur joins different pitches here; a tie joins notes of the same pitch.